

I think it is absurd to consider lowering the standards regarding Indiana's telephone no call list and regulations. The public continues to receive way too many unwanted and unsolicited calls.